IF YOUR PET ATE SOMETHING — THE FIRST MINUTES

- 1 Move your pet away from the substance, and pick up what's left so no one eats more.
- 2 Grab the package or wrapper — the label (ingredients, cocoa %, "sugar-free") is what the hotline works from.
- 3 Note what, how much, and when — your best guess, estimating high. Fill in the blanks below while you dial.
- 4 Call — do not wait for signs and do NOT induce vomiting unless a veterinary professional tells you to. Signs of many poisons take hours to appear.

CALL-NOW FOODS (DOGS)

- Chocolate — dark, baking & cocoa powder are worst
- Xylitol / birch sugar — "sugar-free" gum, candy, some peanut butters
- Grapes, raisins & currants — even a few
- Onion, garlic, leek & chives — fresh, cooked or powdered
- Macadamia nuts
- Alcohol & raw yeast dough
- Marijuana / THC edibles
- Moldy food & compost

Tip — Print one for the fridge and one for the pet sitter, and fill in the numbers today. Check any food in seconds at newdogco.com/dog-toxic-foods-checker — and if it was chocolate, the chocolate calculator at newdogco.com/dog-chocolate-calculator estimates the severity while you dial.
